Description

About us: that the lack of essential nutrition in modern diets was contributing to a We are a group of people who are addicted to and passionate about quality and tasty food as part of developing healthy living habits, through a raw food-based diet. The idea to launch ZdRAWo Slatko i Ro! was born from the need to share our raw food-based diet knowledge and provide all with an easy and simple access to healthy and raw cookies, protein bars and fruit juices. Why raw food? Only intact, raw and fresh food can provide all the necessary nutrients to a human body. A raw food-based diet has a number of advantages - rich sources of enzymes, vitamins, minerals, phytonutrients and dietary fibers. Whether you wish to have a sweet bite or detox your body, or to switch to veganism and raw food-based diet, or you have been a vegan for a while now - our juices, protein bars and cookies will assure you that healthy eats can also make your tummy happy. What makes us unique? We carefully chose the best quality ingredients for our cookies, while juices are made with cold press juicers to ensure that all nutrients are preserved in fruit and vegetable juices. Core ingredients of our cookies and protein bars are nuts, natural sweeteners - agave and maple syrup, and natural oils - coconut oil, and cocoa butter. Our products have no added sugar, they are free of additives, flavor enhancers and emulsifiers, not heat processing, and are simple in their fresh and raw form. We are committed to creating new, original recipes, while in parallel paying attention to design and promotion, but primarily to establishing and maintaining sincere and close relations with our customers. Our mission is to redefine the healthy raw food market, introduce innovations and changes, inspire and offer support and advice, championing healthy eating habits toward changing our daily living for the better. Let yourself indulge in a healthy adventure. We assure you that you can always rely on us.
